Senior Bishop L. H. Holsey, of Atlanta, Ga., of the Colored M. E. Church, who has been spending the last few days in Washington, in an interview last night

Washington, in an interview last hight spoke freely concerning the negro question in the South, and of the recent race rioting in Atlanta.

Bishop Holsey said that a great change of feeling and attitude had come over the people of Atlanta, both among negroes and whites since the late bloodshed there. Immediately after the riotished there, Immediately after the riotished there, Immediately after the riotished the saner heads of both races, he sand that a great change is and uses, now clears, to sand uses, in good condition; lot 125 feet deep; similar house large, comfortable, newly fur. rooms; private familiary, confortable, newl shed there. Immediately after the floth races, he said, had hastened to take steps for the preservation of peace and to prevent functional functions.

Regarding the ultimate settlement of the negro question, Bishop Holsey delares that it was his opinion that the only solution to be found was in the complete separation of the races. He said plete separation of the races. He said he favored the formation of a half independent negro colony, under the prodestiny without interference by those thom it must be evident to all could not much longer dominate him.
